

The London & South East England Section Annual General Meeting 2022

Save the date

Wednesday 29 June 2022/hybrid live/online at 17:00 hrs BST

You are invited to join the 2022 AGM of the London & South East England Section, which this year will be held as a hybrid event live in person at UKFT, 3 Queen Square, London, WC1N 3AR
(Nearest tube station Russell Square: Piccadilly Line, a 10 minute walk)
...and online digitally via Zoom.

We are delighted to announce that following the AGM
our guest speaker this year will be:

Charles Wood CText FTI Managing Director, Baltex

Title of talk: Technical Textiles in the 2020s

As MD of one of the leading suppliers of high-performance textiles, Charles Wood will talk of the exciting role of Technical Textiles in the 2020s - about the latest novel innovations and developments in functional and performance textiles for such end uses as protective clothing and sportswear, healthcare and medical textiles, automotive and aerospace, as well as conductive textiles and wearables.

All TI members are invited. Book your free place with TicketSource using this link:

<https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/booking/t-lnkmlme>

Members registered will be sent AGM papers and agenda 14 days before the AGM, and Zoom joining instructions 48 hours before the AGM

Attendees at 3 Queen Square, WC1N 3AR may arrive from 4:30pm for a prompt 5pm start
