

What is The Textile Institute?

The Textile Institute is the only International professional body representing the whole supply chain in the textile industries connecting students, professionals and organisations globally. The Textile Institute provides services that support the continuing professional development of our members whether that is through educating, sharing knowledge, providing practical advice or connecting members.

How is The Textile Institute Governed?

It is run democratically by and for its members all over the world by its Council and representatives from Sections and Special Interest Groups (SIGs).

It was incorporated in England by a Royal Charter granted in 1925, was inaugurated in 1910 and is a registered charity.

Where is The Textile Institute?

The Textile Institute is a fully international organisation represented by local and national offices around the world with its International Headquarters based in Manchester, UK.
